Case Number: 21-42917-MXM-7

(Chapter 7)

Adv. No. 22-04017-MXM

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA'S ANSWER TO PLAINTIFFS' COMPLAINT FOR HARDSHIP DISCHARGE OF A STUDENT LOAN DEBT PURSUANT TO 11 U.S.C. § 523(a)(8)

TO THE UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY JUDGE:

The United States of America (United States), United States Department of Education (Education), by and through the United States Attorney for the Northern District of Texas, denies that the repayment of the student loans to Education cause Plaintiffs an undue hardship.

The United States admits Plaintiffs are the debtors in this Chapter 7 bankruptcy. The United States does not have sufficient information and knowledge to admit or deny the remaining allegations contained in the Introduction, therefore, they are denied.

The United States admits to the jurisdiction of this Court, that this is a core proceeding, and venue is proper in this district.

The United States admits it is the holder and owner of student loan indebtedness owed by Plaintiffs.

The United States admits Plaintiff's filed for relief under Chapter 7 as alleged under Factual Allegations paragraph 4.

The United States does not have sufficient information and knowledge to admit or deny the allegations contained under Factual Allegations paragraph 5, therefore, they are denied.

The United States does not have sufficient information and knowledge to admit or deny the allegations contained under Factual Allegations paragraph 6, therefore, they are denied.

The United States does not have sufficient information and knowledge to admit or deny the allegations contained under Factual Allegations paragraph 7, therefore, they are denied.

The United States does not have sufficient information and knowledge to admit or deny the allegations contained under Factual Allegations paragraph 8, therefore, they are denied.

The United States admits Plaintiffs owe a total indebtedness to Education in the amount of $111,998.03 as of April 2, 2022.

The United States admits ten loans were made to Plaintiffs from 8/17/2015 through 10/8/2020 under the William D. Ford Federal Direct Loan Program. The United States admits all the loans are Parent Plus loans.

The United States does not have sufficient information and knowledge to admit or deny the allegation contained under Causes of Action paragraph 9, therefore, it is denied.

The United States does not have sufficient information and knowledge to admit or deny the allegations contained under Causes of Action paragraph 10, therefore, they are denied.

The United States does not have sufficient information and knowledge to admit or deny the allegations contained under Causes of Action paragraph 11, therefore, they are denied.

The United States does not have sufficient information and knowledge to admit or deny the allegations contained under Causes of Action paragraph 12, therefore, they are denied.

The United States admits Plaintiffs have failed to make any payments on the loans with Education.

The United States denies the student loans owed to Education are dischargeable.

The United States respectfully requests this Court to enter an order denying any relief to Plaintiff concerning the indebtedness owed to Education and for such further and other relief it may be entitled.

Respectfully submitted,

CHAD E. MEACHAM
UNITED STATES ATTORNEY
